

THE VOICE OF THE GODS

12TH NOVEMBER 2003

Good day cycle friend citizens and welcome to another warm and comforting issue of vodka. Here is a picture to celebrate the end of this paragraph...

Last Sunday's LARP featured the much-anticipated Dragon adventure in which a party of experienced characters took on the Adult Black Dragon Marun Marutz. There was only one casualty during the adventure thanks to the timely intervention by an angelic-looking creature calling itself 'Hope'. The grateful adventurers have now set up a temple to Hope using money from the Dragon's hoard.

The adventurers who were victorious on the day were Eva – Protector of the Prince's Lands (Meg), Perscia – Royal High Alchemist (Puppy), Painboy Warhead Hakkit (Ben P), Lesonar Elphragh the Dragonslayer (Neal) and Dryahn (Kai), Fa'el (Dave) and Slingsnot (Fluffy Ben) of the Autumn Leaf. A ranger later identified as Llandrel, former member of the Autumn Leaf was the only casualty of the adventure.

In other LARP news Jon and I are taking in lists of characters' magic items and special powers to be turned into lammies. Please feel free to e-mail or physically hand to us lists of your items if you haven't done so already.

Another event on the horizon is the Epic Warhammer Siege battle, due to take place at Wargames on the 6th of December, at congregation Hall about 1pm or so. Armies representing the generally good-aligned factions of the Warhammer world will be defending a castle from the Evil forces of Chaos and general evilness...

Feel free to come along and bring a 1,000pt army (with a further optional 500pt detachment) to fight, or alternatively there should be enough spare stuff for people without armies to borrow. For further details see the relevant thread on the games section of the messageboard.
