

THE VOICE OF THE GODS

25TH FEBRUARY 2004

Welcome to another vodka introductory paragraph. I'm never particularly sure what to write in these, so I usually plump for something random or nonsensical. Oh, and of course a picture, so the first paragraph can be neatly skimmed over...

This Friday (27th) sees the return of Sabbat under the STness of Puppy. The game will be at 7pm in congregation hall, but turn up at 6:30 if you missed the genning session...

It's well worth giving Sabbat a go even if you haven't played any live games before, as everyone will be starting off at the same level of xp (so you won't have the weakest character there) and there's generally more scope for different characters in the Sabbat, particularly quirky ones.

This Sunday's evening LARP will see a stealthy party of Lvl. 5-6 adventurers going into Brena to attempt to rescue Arch-Cardinal Giers from the clutches of the Mages Guild. Those willing to risk this mission, which could see the acquisition of the final component for M.A.S.Es grand ritual, should apply to Lady Tania, Captain of the Reavers Keep Militia.

In the afternoon an LT linear will be taking place in order to introduce the newer larpers to the LT system, so make sure you make your weekly dose of larpness.

UKM will now be running only every month instead of every fortnight, as voted for on the board. Downtimes will become an even more important way for everyone to do their plotting and conspiring. Plot is abundant at the moment with the Mayor making things steadily more uncomfortable for the kindred of Norwich. Fresh problems have arisen with the arrival of three further daemons who wish to carry the a certain infamous box off to Hell, which they claim contains the Mayor's soul.

Particularly if you haven't already, give UKM a go, it's currently the most popular live game here and has the benefit of being part of a countrywide system... also, very cool plot is happening and you wouldn't want to miss it...

NOUN of the TIMEPERIOD

Today's noun is, as requested by Ben Pavey is Chord of the Hour, and is Ddim. So well done that chord...

And finally the quotes...

VODKA QUOTES

"Happy Birthday, have some cock."
-lil' Dave

"Presidential decree; +20 hate"
-Meg

"I botched my hate"
-Andrew

"Where's your mullet gone"
-Nick

"You get to be naked boy"
-Ian Brown

"Stop massaging your flump"
-Kai

"Can you give me something hard"
-Can't remember who, probably James Moran

"They've got those two little knobs on so you know where to put your fingers"
-Kt

Ooo.... I get to write big....

-LEON