

THE VOICE OF THE GODS

10TH MARCH 2004

Welcome again to another freshly ironed and wrinkle free edition of vodka, the waffly versatile name you love to touch.

First thing's first, this Friday (12th) it's Ben Paveys birthday and also Jons so there will be a party at 50 Barrett Rd (which is on the south side of the city) starting from 7-8 or whenever you can get there.

Funny, I'm sure I hadn't got quite so far before putting the kettle on... oh well...

On Saturday 13th a small bashette (in the words of Dan) to celebrate Bonnie's birthday will be occurring at roughly around 8 to 9 in the Mischief.

Whilst on the theme of par-tays and the like, many of you may be aware that Kai will be leaving for America imminently, and due to this a leaving party will be occurring at some point, so watch this space...

Next weekend will see the critically acclaimed 24hr roleplay of DOOM occurring, with further details appearing on the message board. Dave Bigg is organising this epic event so contact him with regards to running games you DMs/GMs/STs/HGs etc. out there. Once again it is worth noting, a small fee will be charged for the event which will go to the charity polled for on the message board.

Also on this Saturday 13th Mage will be occurring once more from about 7 onwards in congregation hall. In the words of Mr. Pavey 'come... it'll be fun'...

Larp will be occurring as usual this Saturday... and with the main components having been acquired for a grand and ambitious ritual to grant a small group of adventurers protection from true magic, things could be set to change in Errin. As an advance warning, the first larp of next semester will see the finalised ritual taking place. The following week will see a two-part assault on Brena occurring. In the morning, a party will attempt to break through Brena's gates and secure the main ritual circle inside in order to make way for the evening adventure where an hopefully ritualled-up party will attempt to storm Ghar'Narrek's palace. Volunteers for these sui... er... ambitious missions are eagerly sought... so come along to larp for your last few chances to level up before the big one...
